JL: The two tapes did get here with this note enclosed and, had they gone astray, without any return address.

There were not notes - nothing else. I assume, however, that Tony did not make dubs or keep any notes and will not use anything of what I went into with him in confidence unless he had gotten me, what he made no effort to get, an assistant to search and return to the files.

hw 7/1/89